Longview Recycles Day

Longview Recycles Day [1] is held on the second Saturday of November every year. The event is hosted by the City of Longview Sanitation Division in conjunction with America Recycles Day.

The mission of LRD is in two parts, one is to offer recycling services to residents as well as showcase some of the great recycling businesses in Longview.

Longview Recycles Day 2014 will be held on Saturday, November 8 from 8am-12pm at Lear Park [2].
